Description

About Vaikom : Vaikom is a serene town located in the Kottayam district of Kerala, known for its historical significance and cultural heritage. It's famous for the Vaikom Mahadeva Temple, an important Shiva temple, and is often referred to as "Thekasivanthapuram," meaning the southern seat of Lord Shiva. Vaikom is also known for its tranquil backwaters, traditional Kerala houses, and lush greenery. The town is a gateway to the scenic regions of Kumarakom and Alappuzha and provides a glimpse into the traditional way of life in Kerala. It has a laid-back atmosphere, making it an attractive location for those looking to settle in a peaceful environment while still having access to urban amenities.
