Description

About Meenangadi :Meenangadi is a, rapidly developing town located on NH 766 in Wayanad, Kerala, situated between Kalpetta and Sulthan Bathery. Renowned as India's first proposed carbon-neutral town, it is a key agricultural hub for coffee, pepper, and spices. Historically significant for its ancient dolmens, it offers a scenic, plantation-rich environment and serves as a, central, accessible base for tourists exploring the region.
