Description

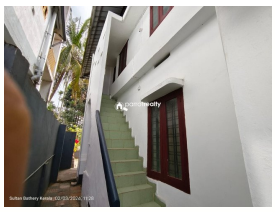

About Sulthan Bathery: Sulthan Bathery is the largest, most vibrant town in Kerala's Wayanad district, situated 1,000 meters above sea level on the NH 766. Formerly called Ganapathyvattom, it was renamed after Tipu Sultan used its 13th-century Jain temple as an ammunition battery. It is a key commercial hub known for its history, pleasant climate, and access to Edakkal Caves.
