Description

About Kaithakkolli : It looks like the place you're referring to — "Kayuthkolli" in Vythiri, Wayanad — is likely a local area or settlement spelled as Kaithakkolli (sometimes the pronunciation/spelling can vary in Malayalam/English for small localities). Kaithakkolli is a place in Thavinjal Panchayat within the Wayanad district of Kerala, India. It's not a major town but rather a small locality near Thalappuzha and Makki routes in Wayanad, located within the larger Vythiri–Taluk area of the district. The area around Vythiri includes waterfalls, lakes like Pookode Lake, forests, and spots like the Chain Tree which has local tribal legend significance. Vythiri is also noted for local eco–tourism activities and village life experiences promoting responsible tourism. Property Details: Land Area: 63cents. Access: frontage tarring road access.
