Description

About Mananthavady: Mananthavady is a small but historically rich town located in the Kerala, in the northern district of Wayanad district. It sits along the banks of the Kabini River and serves as an important cultural and administrative center in the region. Mananthavady is known for its scenic beauty, tribal heritage, and role as a gateway to the forests and hills of Wayanad. Compared to more tourist-heavy spots like Kalpetta, it has a quieter, more laid-back atmosphere. Mananthavady has a tropical climate with heavy monsoons (June–September) and pleasant weather during winter (October–February), making it a great time to visit.
