Description

About Mananthavady: Mananthavady is a scenic town in the northern part of Wayanad district, known for its lush greenery, rivers, and rich cultural heritage. It sits along the banks of the Kabini River, making it one of the most fertile and picturesque areas in Wayanad. Surrounded by forests, hills, and plantations (tea, coffee, spices). Cooler climate compared to lowland Kerala. Home to the famous Valliyoorkavu Temple, known for its annual festival. Linked to the legendary Kerala freedom fighter Pazhassi Raja, who fought against British rule. Nearby is the Pazhassi Tomb, a historical attraction. Property Details: Land Area: 13cent.
