Description

About Padichira: Padichira is a village in Wayanad district, Kerala, located close to the Karnataka border. Primarily a rural agricultural area. Padichira lies in the Mananthavady taluk and is known for its rural charm and scenic surroundings. Accessible by road, though it is less urban compared to bigger towns. Because of its border location, Padichira has cultural and trade connections with both Kerala and Karnataka. Ideal for those who prefer nature and calm living, rather than city life.
