Description

About Mananthavady: Mananthavady is a scenic town and municipality in the Wayanad district, located in the northern part of Kerala. It's known for its natural beauty, tribal heritage, and historical importance. Mananthavady lies about 35 km from Kalpetta and sits at an elevation of around 760 meters above sea level. It is one of the largest towns in Wayanad and acts as an important administrative and commercial center. Mananthavady has strong ties to Kerala's freedom struggle. It was once ruled by Kerala Varma Pazhassi Raja, also called the "Lion of Kerala." The town is surrounded by the lush greenery of the Western Ghats and lies along the banks of the Kabini River and its tributaries. Property Details: Land Area: 22cent. Cultivation: Coffee, Areca nut.
