Description

About Pulpally: Pulpally is a small town in the Wayanad district of Kerala, known for its lush greenery, agricultural life, and historical significance. Pulpally lies in the eastern part of Wayanad, close to the Kerala–Karnataka border. It's surrounded by forests, hills, and farmland, making it quieter and less touristy compared to places like Kalpetta or Sulthan Bathery. Pulpally is associated with the Pulpally Police Station Attack, a key event in Kerala's Naxalite movement. This gives the town a unique place in the state's political history. Property Details: Land Area: 15cent. Land Type: Ideal for residential use. Access: Frontage tarring road access. Location: Perikkalloor, Pulpally, Wayanad, Kerala. Asking Price: per cent 1.25lakhs.
