Description

About Mananthavady: Mananthavady is a major town in the northern part of Wayanad district, Kerala. It lies on the banks of the Mananthavady River, a tributary of the Kabini River, and is about 35 km from Kalpetta. The name “Mananthavady” is believed to come from “Maananthi Vadi”, meaning “the place where deer once roamed.” The town has long been an important trading and cultural center in Wayanad. Mananthavady is closely associated with Kerala Varma Pazhassi Raja, who fought against the British East India Company in the Wayanad forests during the late 18th and early 19th centuries. Mananthavady also has a strong tribal cultural presence, with several indigenous communities living in nearby forest regions. Property Details: Land Area: 70cent.
