Description

About Lakkidi : Lakkidi is a scenic hill village near Vythiri in Wayanad district, often called the “Gateway of Wayanad.” It sits at the top of the famous Thamarassery Ghat pass and is known for misty hills, forests, cool climate, waterfalls, and viewpoints. Beautiful mountain views and fog-covered valleys. The winding Thamarassery Churam ghat road with hairpin bends. Heavy rainfall — sometimes called the “Cherrapunji of Kerala”. Lakkidi stays cool most of the year due to its altitude (around 700 m above sea level). Monsoon season is especially beautiful with thick mist and waterfalls, though roads can become slippery.
