Description

About Thamarassery: Thamarassery is a hill town and taluk in the Kozhikode district of Kerala, located about 30 km northeast of Kozhikode city on NH 766, the highway connecting Kozhikode to Wayanad and Mysuru. It is often called the “Gateway to Wayanad” because travelers heading to Wayanad usually pass through here. Thamarassery is also known for churches, mosques, temples, weekly markets, and as a busy transport hub between Malabar and Wayanad. It lies near the famous Thamarassery Churam, a scenic mountain pass in the Western Ghats with nine hairpin bends. The route is known for misty hills, forest views, and its connection to the tribal legend of Karinthandan. Property Details: Land Area: 30cent. House: 1400sqft, 4Bhk. Cultivation: Coconut, Areca nut.
