Description

About Poothadi: Poothadi is a village and gram panchayat in the Wayanad district of Kerala, located near Kenichira in Sulthan Bathery taluk. It is known for its green hills, plantations, cool climate, and rural scenery. The area is mainly agricultural, with coffee, pepper, arecanut, and other plantation crops being common. It also has tribal communities and a strong connection to Wayanad's eco-tourism and hill culture. A notable landmark is Poothadi Mahakshetram, an old Shiva temple believed to be one of the ancient temples in Wayanad. People online often describe Wayanad, including Poothadi surroundings, as peaceful, scenic, and cooler than Kozhikode, especially during summer. Property Details: Land Area: 1acre 86cent.
