Description

About Nadumpoyil: Nadumpoyil (also written as Nedumpoil/Nidumpoil) is a small hilly village in the eastern part of Kannur district, Kerala, near the road connecting Thalassery and Mananthavady in Wayanad. It is known for its greenery, plantations, cool climate, and scenic countryside. Because of its elevation and greenery, the climate is usually cooler than coastal Kannur. Many travelers pass through Nadumpoyil while going from Kannur district to Wayanad via Peravoor. The village has a quiet rural atmosphere with churches, temples, mosques, schools, and small local markets serving nearby farming communities. Property Details: Land Area: 1acre.
