Description

About Thirunelli: Thirunelli Temple is one of the most famous and ancient temples in Kerala, located in the Brahmagiri hills near Mananthavady in Wayanad district. The temple is dedicated to Lord Maha Vishnu and is often called the "Kashi of the South" because many devotees perform ancestral rituals (bali/tharpanam) there. The temple is surrounded by forests, hills, and streams, giving it a peaceful atmosphere. It lies about 32 km from Mananthavady and around 900 meters above sea level. According to legend, Lord Brahma discovered a Vishnu idol beneath a gooseberry tree ("Nelli" in Malayalam), which gave the place its name "Thirunelli." Devotees believe Brahma himself worshipped here. Property Details: Land Area: 45cent. Cultivation: Coffee. Access: frontage mud road which connected to main tarring road.
