Description

About Chundakara: Chundakara refers to a small locality / neighbourhood / bus stop area near Pallikkunnu in the Mananthavady region of Wayanad district, Kerala, India. It lies along local roads close to Mananthavady town and is part of the broader rural landscape around Pallikkunnu, with nearby settlements such as Kambalakkad and Panamaram mentioned in maps and local navigation data. From mapping information, Chundakara is identified as both a neighbourhood and a bus stop used by local transport in the Mananthavady area. The locality houses religious and community spots, such as St. Joseph Church Chundakkara, which serves as a parish church in the area under the Mananthavady diocese. Typical of many rural areas in Wayanad, the surroundings are agricultural / residential, with scattered houses, small shops, and local bus connectivity to Mananthavady and nearby towns. Nearby commercial spots sometimes carry the Chundakara name — for example, eateries/restaurants with Chundakara in their address show up in listings around the area.
